JOSIAH TURNER, JR., EDITOR.

THE CANAL SCENERY OF NORTH CAROLINA—FOWLS AND FOLIAGE.

A travelling correspondent of the Pittsburg Commercial writes as follows:

"On board the steamer Cannon, we were off bound for numerous places upon Albemarle sound and Roanoke river. The boat is a propeller, small and narrow, as befits a craft destined to investigate the tortuous little stream and narrow canals, of this part of the country; but it is very neat, clean and comfortable, and is under agreeable officers and a cook of fair abilities, if not similar complexion. All day long we steamed on through this curious country, first up the Elizabeth river until it narrowed into insignificance, and then through the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal, which is cut through the lowlands of eastern Virginia, just passing one end of the great Dismal Swamp on its way. It is a rival—and apparently a successful one—of the famed Dismal Swamp canal, than which it is broader and deeper, and better adapted for the necessaries of the trade from the North Carolina sounds and rivers. The old canal has six locks, while the new one has but one, and that one seems to be their only one for the convenience of collecting tolls from passing vessels.

"As we pushed ahead between the banks, which were somewhat covered with the close and intertwined growth in the forest, but often thickly clad on both sides by dense masses of the graceful, drooping, feathery bog fennel, five or six feet in height, and filling the air with its fragrance, frequent gulls would flit by us, and now and then a duck, a kingfisher, or a buzzard; and whenever one of these feathered wanderers approached, one of our fellow-passengers, a Fenian by birth, but a Virginian by grafting, would empty his loud-voiced fowling piece in his direction. No bird fell dead or seemed to be wounded before us, but the marksman assured us it was not his fault, but the fact that these Virginia birds could carry their own weight of lead and never feel the worse of it. This is a singular fact in natural history, and one worthy of notice. We can bear witness to the fact that the gentleman who shot said he was an unerring marksman. We saw him shoot a great number of times, and we saw the birds fly off apparently unharmed.

"As the sun went down and we were free from the canal in the broad waters of Cuntuck sound, the sunset was superb,—The waters rippled in millions of waves, and colored in the richest of dyes. The whole landscape was one wide expanse of rich color and beauty, and when, after passing through one more short canal, we steamed down the great North river and up the majestic Albemarle sound, with its numerous lights and buoys, the moon rose full and grand, and shone upon a scene whose beauty it would indeed be hard to surpass. In fact, when we reached our destination—Jamesville, Martin county, North Carolina—we were agreed, and still hold to the opinion, that it would be difficult indeed to find a journey to any place within our Eastern States which contained more variety, beauty, novelty and comfort than the one which we had just completed."

THE HORRIBLE CHIGNON.—The time when chignons will go out of fashion might be called a hairy millenium. The other day we saw a wonder—a young lady who wore her own hair only. There was not very much of it, but how beautiful and natural it looked, and how different from those monstrous and abominable bags of jute, those impossible switches, those bundles of tangled wool, which now disfigure nearly every woman in the city.—To look at these gigantic deformities, which do not even pretend to be natural, is to think of perspiration, trichinæ, rope yards, dirt, and detestable taste. They disfigure the entire head of the prettiest of young ladies. Sometimes the vanity of the wearer leads to amusing results. We recently saw a lady whose "braid" or "front" had been disarranged by wind, and displayed a forehead as bald as Bismarck's, while behind her luxuriant tresses were bound up in a bundle like a coffee-bag. It is getting to be common to see decided differences in the colors of the real and the false hair. But our ladies do not seem to mind these absurdities. They have ceased to pretend that the chignons are but the natural locks of their pretty little heads, and openly discuss the prices of hemp and wool. We wish even those who buy real hair, cut from the dead or bought from the living, would reflect upon the words of a clergyman, who asked one of his fair and fashionable sheep if she had ever thought that she might be wearing the hair of a woman whose soul might be in purgatory? The question was severe, but suggestive. It would not, however, apply to the majority of American women; they do not wear natural hair, and are obliged to stick on the back of their heads substances done up in nets, that resemble hair about as much as a scrubbing brush does. The time may come when American women will not sacrifice beauty, taste, and what may be called the honesty of personal appearance, to the tyranny of a barbarian and ugly fashion. But it will never come till they have as much regard for the inside of their precious heads as they now have for their outside.—Lynchburg News.

JOSH BILLINGS ON THE EFFEMINATE MAN.—The effeminate man is a weak poultice. He is a cross between a root-beer and a ginger pop with the cork left out. A fresh-water mermaid found in a new pasture with his hands filled with dandelions. He is a teacupful of syllabub—a kitten in pantalettes—a sick monkey with a blonde moustache. He is a vine without any tendrils—a fly drowned in oil—a paper kite in a dead calm. He lives like a butterfly—nobody can tell why. He is as harmless as a cent's worth of spruce gum, and as useless as a shirt button without a hole. He is as lazy as a bread pill, and has no more hope than a last year's grasshopper. He goes through life on tiptoes and dies like cologne water spilt over the ground.

The fact that we always want that which we cannot have or find it difficult to get, is brought to mind by the frantic efforts of our brethren at the North to obtain a grape that will ripen and will not rot in that climate; and the no less zealous strivings of our Southern friends to get hold of a grass that will make hay before their hot suns have burned it up. We say to each that both objects can be attained in North Carolina or Virginia. Grapes and grass both find a congenial soil in both States.

10,000 Nos. Put in the Wheel; 8 110 Awards Drawn.

Whole Certificates, $5; Halves $2 50; Quarters, $1 25.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

PRIZE DRAWING.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John Bowden, Commissioner. The wheels were made with glass sides, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until the drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

THE GRAND DRAWING YESTERDAY.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 1 o'clock, was the all-absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 3310, $5,000; No. 6006, $2,500; No. 5776, $2,500; No. 2842, $2,000; No. 1407, $2,000; No. 4412, $1,000; No. 1486, $500. The Certificate No. 1407 was sold to a citizen of Wilmington, N. C.—Wilmington Morning Star, Dec. 2nd.

OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL,

Oxford, N. C.

J. H. HORNER, } Associate
R. H. GRAVES, } Principals.

THIS SCHOOL which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in College, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior classes in the University of Virginia, of Washington Lee University. The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that Institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Science, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students, who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instruction in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for College or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon application to either of the principals.

A DISTRESSED PILGRIM.

The Legislature has before it, and will pass, a bill reducing the pay of the Superintendent of Public Instruction from $2,400 to $30 per annum. This, as the "immortal J. N." would say, is putting the pressure upon the Pilgrim at an enormous rate; so heavy, indeed, that it has produced an editorial groan from the ex-Professor that could not fail to stir the "in'ards" of Plymouth Rock itself. Martin charges the Democrats of the Legislature, in their action on this subject, with perjury—"they violate their oaths," says he. To thus pull the teat from his poor brother-in-law's lips, and unceremoniously deprive him of what he came "drown south" for, and all that he stays for, is in "enmity with good government and against the educational interest of the State."

The Pilgrim has received $2,400 a year as Superintendent, Hood $1,000 a year as Assistant Superintendent, both an additional amount for traveling expenses, the Pilgrim's son $1,500 a year as clerk to his daddy, another member of his family $75 a month as teacher in the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, besides some hundreds paid to the Governor's private secretary, J. R. Neathery, as an additional clerk to the Pilgrim, the whole affair summing up somewhere between six and seven thousand dollars. No wonder there is an agonizing wail sent up when the Legislature attempts to squeeze all this sugar out and give him the dry rag to chew.

Martin don't seem very much disturbed about the reduction of Cobe's salary, although that was cut down as many "button holes" as the Pilgrim's was. But that was not a family concern, or did not concern the family. Besides, Cobe seems to have "exhausted" the powers of the Superintendent of Public Works, in the Railroad injunction cases and the Penitentiary location, as completely as Judge Pearson did the powers of the Judiciary in the habeas corpus cases, last summer. Indeed, that penitentiary location business was terribly exhaustive in itself, independent of all collateral suction, and we don't believe that Cobe's imagination could ever have covered the mighty ides of locating a penitentiary building on the "boundless contiguity" of eight thousand acres of land, without the "ready wit and good contrivance" of Miller Lassiter and "Hon." James Harris.

They are truly an exhaustive set. Judge Pearson exhausted the powers of the Judiciary, Littlefield, Jones & Co., exhausted the railroad fund, the Executive has exhausted the vials of his wrath on the people of the State, the Legislature exhausted all the money in the Treasury, the whole set have exhausted the patience of the people, and now the Pilgrim and his brother-in-law Martin are exhausting their stock of billingsgate on the Legislature for cutting down his unearned salary to $30 per annum.

George Francis Train once said of our exalted President, Grant, "why he is a perfect booby, he don't know anything at all, and every time I meet him I feel like saying, General I have just five minutes to spare, and now I want you to tell me all you know."

Well, George, you have measured your man. In about five minutes he has shown to the country, not only all he knew but a great deal that he did'nt know.

Grant still urges San Domingo's annexation. If he will pledge himself to make Holden Governor of that Territory, for life, we will consent to the annexation. With Holden to govern and appoint, Pearson to "sustain," Littlefield to manage the finances, Kirk to command the "State Troops," and Rotating Dick to "defend," the country would not be troubled with San Domingo or its government long. If this can be accomplished, a double benefit will be secured.

The message of Governor Walker, of Virginia, to the Legislature is provoking high encomiums from the Press of that State. It is spoken of as full of the Democratic fire and vigor that will become the chief magistrate of this heroic old Commonwealth, and ends finely, thus: "Emerging from the terrible ordeal of four years baptism of blood, stript of everything save incorruptible honor, the peoplent this Commonwealth have resumed their place in the Union of their fathers with an earnest purpose and a fixed determination to fulfil all the obligations of American citizens. More cannot be required of them—less they will not perform."

The action of the Italian Government, in taking possession of Rome, is very strongly and universally denounced by the Catholics all over the world. The Pope is constantly in receipt of letters of sympathy, and condemnation of the Italian Government.

The Pope has ordered all churches in the city to remain closed during the presence of Victor Immanuel. What may eventually result from this confusion, we can at a loss to divine.

RIOTOUS AND INSURRECTIONARY.

We mentioned yesterday the arrest of a number of colored persons accused of burning the gin-house of Lashley and Holleman, and other buildings in the southern portion of this county, and their arrival here on Saturday night and the incarceration in jail. One of the prisoners, we believe, implicated several, if not all, the others, and the evidence against them direct and circumstantial, is very strong. As stated by us heretofore, the gin-house abovementioned, with 9 or 10 bales of cotton and two mules were burned; a barn in the same vicinity, on the same night, with a valuable horse was also destroyed, and other barns since have been fired. It is stated, we are informed, by one of the prisoners, that a general burning throughout the neighborhood was to take place on Saturday night last, by those who have been arrested and others not yet arrested, some of whom have fled the county and perhaps the State.

Now, what we started out to allude to in connection with this subject, is the demonstrations that were made by a large number of negroes of this city on the arrival of the prisoners here, on Saturday night. The prisoners were in custody of a township officer, who had summoned a number of men to come with him to assist in keeping the prisoners secure. When they arrived and the facts of the arrest were ascertained, these negroes alluded to, assembled on the Market Square, used the most abusive language towards the officer's posse; threatened them with personal violence; declared it was high time that the "lines were drawn," that they were "ready for it," &c., &c. They accused the men of stealing the horses they were riding, and used much other such language calculated and, no doubt intended to provoke a difficulty. So violent were the demonstrations that a gentleman who witnessed them called the attention of a policeman to their conduct, but when he attempted to quiet them they assailed him with threats.

These facts we have from reliable sources, and we have mentioned them to show the state of feeling existing among many of the colored people against a proper execution of the laws. Barn burnings and similar outrages are becoming alarmingly frequent, and yet when the perpetrators of these crimes are detected and arrested, their brother leaguers, under the teachings of bad men, are ready to insult those whose duty it is to execute the laws, resist their efforts and pursue such a course of conduct as will create riot, and disturbance.

One of the negroes engaged in the demonstrations on Saturday night, when told that their conduct was riotous and would subject those engaged in it to arrest, said, "let them come on, but if it begins there is many a big house in this town that won't be standing by the time it is over."

There are a number of worthless white men and some negroes of desperate character, who are the instigators and abettors of this sort of lawlessness. We do not believe that the negroes generally are disposed to create disturbance or resist the execution of the law; but they are easily influenced and, under the instigations of bad men, are likely to be led into difficulties. One of the most noisy and boisterous of the crowd on Saturday night, declared that a bill had already been offered in the Legislature "to take away the colored man's rights;" of course such lies are put into their heads by scoundrels who desire to create trouble, knowing that a state of peace and quiet and proper execution of the laws, is neither congenial to their nature or advantage. It is high time this riotous, lawless spirit was arrested.

Mr. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, offered resolutions in Congress last Tuesday, calling for information relative to the employment of Federal troops in Alabama and other States at the recent elections. They were strongly resisted by the Radicals. Of course, they are perfectly willing to sanction all outrages and violations of law, but do not wish to be called upon to state wherefore.

William, King "by the Grace of God" of Prussia, is going to be Emperor of Germany, "by the grace" of the union of the several German States, principalities, &c. United Germany will be a power, and William is about as fond of power as any man we wot of.

The Wilmington Journal, after commenting upon Mr. Ashley's management of the Common School System and funds, concludes:

"The people of North Carolina are tired of such stuff. They do demand and must have a proper system of free schools; they demand and must have a Superintendent of Education in whose moral and intellectual worth they have the utmost confidence. The Board of Education must be so constituted that the taxes imposed for educational purposes shall be honestly and faithfully expended. All classes of our children, rich and poor, white and black, must be made to feel that their State will not permit them to grow up in ignorance, but that North Carolina will take care of the intellectual growth of those into whose hands her future destinies will be confided.

No question deserves more attention at the hands of the Legislature or so loudly calls for the intervention of a Convention as does that of education.

For the Sentinel.

Editor Sentinel, Dear Sir: In your issue of Saturday last, I saw an extract from one of the Washington papers describing the new carpet recently imported for the United States Senate Chamber; and your enquiry as to whether any China-ware was ordered with it. I would like to know what China-ware has to do with a carpet. My humble opinion is that if China is shipped with carpets, it will increase the value of the latter very much; and I think if the present Legislature will appoint a Committee on Frauds, they will find evidence so conclusive that they will be able to put their feet right as it is on our own capitol.

The following resolutions were taken up under the rule, to-wit:

WHEREAS, Neither justice, sound policy or the public welfare can be promoted by the sanction of combinations, to defraud the State or the people; and whereas, in the opinion of this General Assembly the people of North Carolina have a settled conviction that the enormous appropriations made and squandered by the late Convention and General Assembly in the years 1868-'69 and '70, were conceived in fraud and consummated in corruption, and for that cause, there is neither moral, constitutional or legal obligation binding the State to pay them, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be, and is hereby, instructed to bring in a bill consolidating all the debts due by the State of North Carolina prior to the 1st of January, 1868, not declared void by the Constitution of 1865, acts of Congress, or Proclamations of the President of the United States, the same to be payable on and after the 4th of July 1900, with interest thereon at 3 per ct. per annum, payable semi-annually at the Treasury of North Carolina at Raleigh, North Carolina, in gold.

Mr. Olds moved to amend by striking out the preamble, which was voted down.

Mr. Jones moved to amend by striking out all after the preamble, and inserting the following, to wit:

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Journal of Saturday read and approved.

Mr. Powell was allowed to record his vote in the negative upon the question of per diem, he being unavoidably detained from his seat when the vote was taken on Saturday.

WHEREAS, Said Hospital is yet unfinished, and not likely to be completed; and

WHEREAS, The State owns a boat in said Harbor, known as the Hospital boat, and

The resolutions were read and placed on the calendar.

By Mr. Hill: A resolution requesting the Council of State to furnish this House with a journal of their proceedings; placed on calendar.

By Mr. Strudwick: A resolution requiring the Auditor to furnish an itemized statement of that portion of the Treasurer's Report which comes under the head "Contingencies;" placed on calendar.

By Mr. Sparrow: A bill concerning the city of Newbern; referred.

By Mr. McAfee: A bill in relation to Salaries and Fees.

By Mr. Coffin: A bill in relation to certain Townships in Mitchell county; referred.

By Mr. Martin: A bill to appoint an Inspector and Weigher at the Port of Newbern; referred.

By Mr. Woodhouse: A bill to repeal chapter 42, laws of 1869-'70; referred.

By Mr. York: A bill to authorize the construction of a bridge over the Yadkin River at or near Wilkesboro'; referred.

On motion of Mr. Waring, the rules were suspended and the report of the Committee on Printing was taken up.

The report states that a contract has been entered into with James H. Moore of the SENTINEL office, of this city, on the following terms:

Plain work, 75 cents per 1000.
Rule and figure work $1.50 per 1000.
Press Work, 75 cts. per token (240 impressions.

For binding books of the size of the Acts of 1868-'69, full sheep, 75 cents.
For size of 1869-'70, full sheep, 60 cts.
For size of 1869-'70, half sheep, 20 cts.
For size of 1869-'70, paper, 10 cts.
House Journals, size of 1869-'70, full sheep, 60 cents.

For folding and stitching bills, documents, &c., per 1000, of 8 page forms, 10 cents per thousand.

Mr. Waring stated that the Committee had advised with the leading printing establishments of the city, upon the proper prices to be paid for the different kinds and styles of work, and had likewise most carefully examined into the prices heretofore paid, and had closed a contract by which the printing would be done cheaper than even in ante bellum days. The old way of counting by book measure was done away with, and the printing would be paid for by actual measurement by the thousand. He (Mr. W.) had resisted this contract, because he thought 75 cents per thousand too little, when paid by actual measure; he was in favor of 90 cents per thousand. He thought the contract too cheap, as it ground down the wages of printers; he wished labor to be fairly compensated. If the House would be at all economical in their printing orders, the public printing would, at an enormous estimate, not exceeding $8,000 per annum, whereas last year it cost the State $28,000.

After some little debate the report of the Committee was concurred in and the following resolution, which accompanied the report, passed its second reading:

Resolved, That no printing of the State by any other than the party who has contracted to do the public printing shall be paid for out of the public money: Provided, That the Standard newspaper office shall be paid for work contracted for (and performed) before the abolition of the office of State Printer, and this resolution shall be in force from the abolition of the said office.

A communication was read from the Attorney General in reference to the rights of the State in the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad under existing laws. The communication was sent in compliance with a resolution of the House asking the opinion of that officer in regard to the above mentioned matter. The document was ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. McAfee, the rules were suspended and the bill to repeal the act extending the corporate limits of the town of Ruthfordton was taken up.

Messrs. McAfee, Jones of Caldwell, and Sparrow advocated the bill.

Messrs. Justice and Hargrove opposed it.

After the adoption of an amendment submitting the question to the qualified voters of the town who resided within the old limits, the bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Robinson, from the Committee on Enrolment, reported various bills and resolutions as being correctly enrolled.

Mr. Crawford, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported several bills and resolutions as being correctly engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the rules were suspended and the bill in reference to the Keeper of the Capitol was taken up, (the bill takes away the appointment of the Keeper of the Capitol from the Board, created by sec. 2, chap. 103 Revised Code, and makes the office elective by the Legislature on the 4th Wednesday of each and every session).

The report of the Committee favorable to the passage of the bill was read and concurred in, and the bill passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 69, nays 24.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its third reading.

Mr. Nicholson, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, submitted a report in regard to the Wayn county contested election between Messrs. Copeland, the sitting member, and Pearson. The report recommends that a Commissioner be sent to Goldsboro to take depositions.)

On motion of Mr. Nicholson, the rules were suspended and the report was concurred in.

Mr. Nicholson then offered a bill appointing a Commissioner to proceed to Goldsboro' and take evidence in the matter.

On motion of the same, the rules were suspended and the bill considered.

On motion of Mr. Harris, of Franklin, the bill was so amended as to authorize the appointment of two Commissioners instead of one. The bill then passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Nicholson, the rules were suspended and the bill then passed its third reading.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

NOTE.—In the ballot taken on Saturday on the $5 per diem question, Mr. York should have been reported as voting in the negative.

Mr. McAfee's amendment on Saturday to the per diem bill should have read "$4" for Doorkeepers instead of "14" as a typographical error made the report state.

If, as Lucy Stone says, "the cradle is the woman's ballot box," there has got to be a law passed against "repeating." A woman in this county has just cast three votes at once!

PROF. CHANDLER, of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene: you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

Mayor's Court.—His Honor, W. H. Harrison, presiding.

Richard Utley, Henry Hinton, and Bleuf Bright, all colored, were arraigned before his Honor upon a preliminary examination, upon charge of complicity in the burning of the gin houses of Messrs. Lashley and Holleman, heretofore alluded to.

Daniel G. Fowle, Esq., for the prosecution; F. H. Busbee, Esq., for the defence.

Owing to absence of witnesses for the defence the examination was postponed until Wednesday morning.

The prosecution then went into examination of witnesses for the State, against parties not yet arrested, who are supposed to be connected with the affair. After examination, subpœnas were issued for the several parties. For obvious reasons we will not go into particulars until after all the parties are arrested, and fuller information disclosed.

The several parties were held to bail in the sum of $1,000 each, which, failing to give, were committed until further investigation.

Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay, the accomplished young President of the North Carolina State Council, Friends of Temperance, has received and accepted an invitation to deliver an address before Goldsboro Council, No. 43, of that order, on Thursday, December 22d inst. The Goldsboronians propose doing things up well, and Mr. R. will do both the occasion and himself justice.

The Revival continues at the Baptist Church with unabated interest. A very large number of profession of conversion have been made, and many more are still seeking after righteousness. May a kind and beneficent Providence help them all!

On Thursday Morning, the Rev. Mr. Earle will visit Forrestville and hold Religious services. It is proposed that a large number accompany him, and return the same day. It will no doubt be a pleasant time.

Can it be true?—We hear, upon what seems to be good authority, that poor old Downing's administrator found among his "valuables," a note on M. S. Littlefield for $25,000, and North Carolina State bonds amounting to $30,000.

Hon. Israel G. Lash, M. C. from the 5th district, is confined to his bed, at his home in Salem, by severe illness. He will not be able to go to Washington before January.

The Legislature proposes to pass a general act appointing the first day of May, of each year, as the time for holding municipal elections throughout the State.

Farmers are killing hogs in Goldsboro'.

The Goldsboro' Messenger palmed a hint at its distinguished subscribers a few days since, whereupon one of them—perked the Messenger with five fine hams.

The Conductors and other officers of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad are to be uniformed. This is a good idea, but cannot Dr. Hawkins suggest some other color than blue? Any other color not quite so commonly used for uniforms, would appear as well and be more distinctive.

Judge Boyd's Court continues its session during the present week.

Two Wolves were killed near Williamsboro', Granville county, by Mr. Thomas Norwood, recently. A large pack have been annoying the people of Granville for some years, and we are gald that the prospects are good for its early extinction.

The Paper.—This is the title of a new daily journal recently established in Pittsburg, Pa. It is Democratic, and deserves a handsome support at the hands of the party. It is one of the ablest and best "gotten-up" exchanges that comes to our table. We wish it an abundant success.

Another Step Forward.—We had a short call on Saturday evening from Mr. Ogle, of Preston, England, who has been for some time in this State on a prospecting tour, as the pioneer of a number of English farmers and mechanics who design making their homes on this side the Atlantic. Mr. Preston expresses himself much pleased with our State, and expects to return as soon as practicable with about twelve families, most of them possessing capital, who will settle in this county. Mr. Ogle himself, who is familiar with cotton manufactures, designs starting a large factory in or near Raleigh. This will be distinct from the one mentioned by us on Saturday, to be started by Mr. B. P. Williamson.

We cannot fail to express our appreciation of the advantages given us by the Associated Press dispatches, to lay before our readers, the latest news at the earliest possible moment. We frequently get information by telegraph at 2 P. M., which reaches us in the New York papers at 4, the same evening. This gives us news two hours in advance of the mail. We really do feel proud of our news-getting facilities.

We hope our Representative, Mr. Manning, will exert himself to secure mail facilities for the good people of his own county. A daily mail should be established from this City to the several points in Chatham contiguous to the Chatham Railroad, and we hope Mr. M. may succeed in getting it done.

A NEW FEATURE.

We called in at Tucker Hall yesterday, to see the new drop curtain being prepared by Messrs. Donohower and Monroe, and we must confess to an admiration for it. It is gotten up in brilliant and attractive colors, and arranged so as to present very neat advertisements of many prominent business houses, hotels, &c. Messrs. D. & M. have exhibited admirable skill and taste in this matter, which will result in a handsome addition to the Hall.

Now, a suggestion to the Messrs. Tucker. While the stage department is receiving proper ornamentation, we hope the other parts of the Hall will not be overlooked. The wood work will look badly in comparison with the stage, if left as it is. A little tasty "touching up" will add muchly. And then, handsomely frescoed, Tucker Hall will compare favorably, in beauty of style and arrangement, with any hall in the country. We feel satisfied that a mere hint is sufficient for the Messrs. T., they being ever ready to do anything that will add to the attractiveness of our beautiful "City of Oaks."

HOW IT WAS DONE.

London Robertson, a freedmen, living in Orange county, says that Major Smith, last summer, promised to pay Railroad hands, after the election, $15 a month. He says he voted at Graham; that Major Smith advised him that he could do so, although Orange was his home.

London further says, that the usual number of hands to a gravel train was twenty-four, but that the Major put on forty-eight in July, and kept them on until the election was over and then dismissed half of them.

A gentleman of Alamance informs us that at least three hundred negroes voted in Alamance at the August election, who were not residents of the county and consequently not entitled to vote there.

Let the people of Alamance and Guilford look out; Billy will blow his horn again, as the Holden, Radical candidate for the Senate.

Railroad Accident.—On Saturday evening last, much excitement prevailed on our streets when it became known that an accident had occurred to the up-mail train on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, such things being so very rare on this well managed road. But the telegraph soon announced that no one was hurt, and the only damage sustained was the breaking of an axle after the train had passed Forestville some two miles. That gallant young Conductor, Dallas T. Ward, exerted himself to render the delay as agreeable to his passengers as possible, and to get the train in travelling condition. Supper time coming on, the passengers exhibited some little apprehension on this score, when that best of landlords, Dr. Blacknall, of the Yarborough House, being on, come to their rescue. He ordered from a neighboring house, a supply of breadstuffs, and having a quantity of oysters on, designed for his house, soon set such a supper before them as a King would relish. A vote of thanks was unanimously tendered Dr. B. and conductor Ward, and by 11 P. M., all reached our city safe and sound.

Disgruntled.—Mr. Beasley, Senator from Bertie, seems to be a little disgruntled at the notice we made of his attempt to dodge the vote on the passage of the bill repealing the Shoffner military bill, last Saturday. On Monday he sent the following note to our Senate Reporter, by the Assistant Doorkeeper:

"Mr. Pell:—how do you feel this morning after publishing me as you have, you ought to be very cautious."

Now we will say to Mr. Beasley, firstly, that we write our own locals and editorials, and do not leave that part of our work to our Reporters; and secondly, that he did try to dodge the vote on the repeal of the Shoffner military bill, and would not vote until called upon by Mr. Latham and required to vote, according to the rules of the Senate; and we call on the people of Bertie county to note and remember the fact. Yes, he did try to dodge, and when forced to vote he voted against the repeal of the odious Shoffner military bill.

Outrage in Guilford.—We are indebted to a friend for the following particulars in regard to an affair that has created some excitement in Guilford county:

On Sunday morning, December 4th, a young negro boy rode into Greensboro looking for the Coroner; informing the citizens that an old colored man named Price had been torn and killed by dogs, near that place, on the preceeding night. A jury of inquest was summoned, who reported the following facts: That one Parker deposed that about 11 o'clock on Saturday night, on his way to get a Magistrate to sign some warrants for the arrest of some parties whom he suspected of having burned his barn a few nights previous, he discovered Price attempting to set fire to a house on his premises; that he caught him with the aid of his dogs, when he confessed to having burned his barn; that he took him to his (Parker's) own house, where he confessed before his family; and that he sent a negro, named Gilmer, to the gate with him, to keep the dogs from getting on him again. Nothing more was seen or heard of him till the following (Sunday) morning, when he was found about a quarter of a mile from the house, mangled, with the dogs still tearing him.

The statements of other parties in regard to this matter are conflicting. Parker and Gilmer were, we understand, arrested and confined in the Guilford jail.

All the parties are spoken of as disreputable characters.

A Sterling Paper.—Among the best papers in the country is the Daily Patriot, of Washington City. It is high-toned, dignified, and edited with striking ability. If any of our Southern friends wish a paper from the National Capital, by all means take the Patriot. It is very much after the style of the old National Intelligencer. Daily, subscription, $10 per annum. Weekly, $2.50. Cash in advance.

The Ordinance of Baptism will be administered at the Baptist Church, in this city, Wednesday afternoon, at 2 1-2 P. M., by Rev. Dr. Pritchard, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. B. Earl.

Supreme Court.—This tribunal will assemble in this city on the first Monday in January next. We are authorized to state that the causes from the several Judicial districts will be called in the following order:

1st week,	1st and	2nd District.
2nd "	4th and	5th "
3rd "	3rd and	7th "
4th "	8th and	9th "
5th "	10th and	11th "
6th "	12th and	6th "

On Monday of the first week, applicants for license to practice law will be examined on the "Rights of Property." On Tuesday they will be examined on Pleading, Practice and the Code of Civil Procedure.

The causes from the first district will be taken up on Wednesday.

I. O. O. F. Celebration.—Our citizens will bear in mind the Odd Fellows' celebration at Metropolitan Hall to-night.—Maj. Seaton Gales delivers the oration. Of Major G's. fitness for the duty it is unnecessary for us to speak. He is universally esteemed as one of the most polished speakers in our State, and his selection for the occasion reflects great credit upon the Committee of Arrangement.

After the ceremonies at the Hall, the Odd Fellows will proceed to the National Hotel, where Mr. Rutjes, its accomplished proprietor, will regale them with the best of the season.

Catholic Fair.—This Fair, according to previous announcement, opened last evening in the basement of St. John's Church.

The room is beautifully decorated and the numerous tables arranged in the most becoming and artistic manner. One of the chief features of the evening, and we dare say will be continued as long as the Fair lasts, was the delightful music on the violin and piano by two young gentlemen connected with the choir of St. John's Church. We hope all those who wish to advance the cause of education and at the same time spend a pleasant hour, will go to the Fair this evening.

Criminals Escaped.—On Sunday night eight of the nine convicts in the county workhouse made their escape from that institution and are now at large. The facts in connection with the affair, as we learned them are these: Mr. Perry, the Superintendent, ordered the man on guard, whose name we did not learn, not to open the door of the prison unless there were another guard present. In disobedience to this order, the guard opened the door to give the inmates their supper, when all hands rushed out, went to the office and gathered a shot gun and quantity of tools and made off, and it is reported that while they were going one way, the guard, though armed with a double barreled shot gun, was making tracks another. Mr. Perry had one of the convicts with him, and he is the only one left.

Painful Accident.—Capt. L. R. Exline, of Lockville, Chatham county, while crossing Fayetteville Street opposite the Court House Sunday night, was run against by a horse attached to a carriage, knocked down, his right foot stepped on by the horse, and very painfully injured. He was taken to his room at the Yarborough House, Dr. Haywood called in, who administered to his sufferings. The Captain does not hold the driver of the horse responsible, as it was very dark and raining hard. We trust he may speedily recover.

Theft and Arrest.—On Wednesday night last, John Holden, alias, John Pace, alias, John Reid, under all which aliases, no doubt, he voted in the last election, stole a pistol, a pair of new boots and a pet dog from Mr. Linke, boarding at J. H. Renfrow's on Hargett street. John with the aliases, sold the pet dog in the country, by which means Mr. Linke, with some assistance got on his track, and during the rain and storm of Sunday night, the track got warm and finally they treed him somewhere in the woods near Milburnie.—They brought him to town, took him before Esquire Whitaker, who, on examination of his case sent him round to board where pistols would be dangerous, boots not much needed, and where pet dogs will not bite him.

Editorial.—We are pleased to meet in our City, Maj. J. A. Englehard of the Wilmington Journal, and Mr. E. Cuthbert, correspondent New York Herald.

Personal.—Gen'l Robt. Ransom, Col. Robert H. Cowan, Col. S. L. Freemont and Hon. S. N. Martin, are in the City, stopping at the Yarborough House.

CONCERT AT THE RALEIGH FEMALE INSTITUTE.

Mr. Editor: We went, we listened, and were delighted. We came away undecided whom most to congratulate, those who made the music, or those who had the privilege of hearing it. Two or three things particularly attracted the attention of the auditors; first, the much that had been accomplished in a short space of time; second, the very correct time—musically speaking—that was kept by the performers, and the fact that two dozen pieces were played without a "break-down," which last attests the care and fidelity of the accomplished young lady who has charge of this department.

Several very difficult pieces of vocal music were performed by the older pupils, led by the instructress, and assisted by two young gentlemen of this city. If it were proper to put little girls' names in the paper, three or four, would be inserted just here, who sang very sweetly indeed, and with a distinctness of enunciation unusual in these days; in the want of which we lose half the charm of song; every listener must have carried away in his heart an echo of,

"Put me in my little bed."

The success of this School is its sufficient recommendation. Dr. and Mrs. Lacy are known,—that is enough. L. M.

We endorse all that is said or intimated by "L. M." in regard to the high character of Dr. and Mrs. Lacy's school, of its good government, its parental discipline and the proficiency of its pupils, and if more were necessary to be said favorable to it, we could truthfully say it. But as "L. M." says, Dr. and Mrs. Lacy are known—that is enough, only that the announcement of the opening of the Spring session will be made in due time.

NEW YORK.

New York, Dec. 12.—The Herald's Berlin special of the 8th says: Bismarck denies all opposition to bombardment. It is reported that a council of war at Versailles has decided to bombard Paris. Tribune's special London of the 9th says Gambetta asks an armistice to enable the assembly of the national convention; also asks leave for Favre to pass the lines to consult with his colleagues and conduct negotiations; confessing that the army of the Loire is defeated in detail. Gambetta declines the responsibility of another struggle or of making peace. The National Assembly must decide.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Boutwell was before the Ways and Means committee to-day, explaining his plans.

Drake confirmed as Chief Justice of the Court of claims.

Committee reported favorably on Porter's nomination; an hour's discussion followed but no action. The Senate seems in favor the House bill which confers the rank of Admiral on Porter Vice Admiral for life.

Butler in the House said Porter had disgraced the President and the Navy.

In the Senate Morton introduced a resolution appointing a San Domingo commission and appropriating $30,000 for its expenses.

McCreery introduced a joint resolution for a committee to inquire whether the late Gen. R. E. Lee had any right or title to the Arlington estate which made it liable to forfeiture by his participation in the rebellion, and whether it was not the property of Mrs. Lee and her children, and if so, to adopt such measures as will restore to Mrs. Lee the estate, with compensation for all the damage done to the property; and inquire into the expediency of removing the remains of those who are buried on the estate, and also to consider the propriety of restoring the Washington relicts to Mrs. Lee.

Mr. McCreery desired to make some remarks on the resolution, but Mr. Edmunds objected until it should be printed.

Mr. Schurz introduced a resolution looking to general amnesty.

Mr. Saulsbury, a resolution enquiring the President's reasons for sending troops into Delaware at the recent election.

After Executive session the Senate adjourned.

In the House, Rainey, negro, from South Carolina was seated.

Among the bills introduced and referred were, a bill abolishing the income tax; a bill to incorporate the American and European Steamship company with a capital of $5,000,000, a bill appropriating $250,000 for the Louisville Falls, bill to prevent the purchase of persons as chattels, whether under the head "territorial" or otherwise. (This is a hit at San Domingo.) The bill repealing the tenure of office act, passed by 151 to 25. Banks offered a resolution for a commission to San Domingo, which was finally referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

Resolution to adjourn from 22nd inst., to 4th January, adopted.

A resolution looking to revenue reform and the abolition of internal revenue, was adopted by a vote of 161 to 6.

HOW TO SELECT PROLIFIC COTTON

As the cotton picking season is on hand, I send an experiment which I have tried with a few seed selected last season from the ordinary cotton. Last season, while resting in the "Cultivator" of the great advantages to be gained by planting improved seeds, I endeavored to purchase a few, but failed in every attempt, and planted my entire crop with ordinary seed. On a patch of seven acres, I found one stalk that resembled very much the improved cotton planted by my neighbors—its branches were short and crowded with bolls. Knowing that no improved seed had been planted about the place where I obtained mine, I hunted over a few acres, to find out the cause of this fair specimen, and succeeded in finding several stalks with a few short limbs similar to the former. From these I have selected and planted separate from the rest, and the result is, that they have all produced plants similar to each other. These stalks containing the short limbs are well known to all planters, called by some "forked cotton," composed of two or three prongs. Once in a while, by noticing closely, there will be found in these stalks, a few very short limbs, by selecting from these and planting separately, any planter can in a few years produce an improved seed of the short limb variety of his own. These short limbs will not be found on every stalk of this description, as they are very scarce, and it is owing to the scarcity of these limbs, that we find so little of the prolific cotton mixed with the ordinary. Where this stalk with short limbs has only two prongs, it seldom produces more than one boll to the limb; but where it has three prongs, two and three bolls will often be found on one limb. These bolls will all be found to open by the middle of October, and will form a very early and productive cotton. By selecting from the short limbs of the Peeler and others, a variety may be produced as productive as the Dickson. Why should the planters of the South pay five dollars for one bushel of cotton seed, when they have such an advantage as this? I have also walked over several other fields of ordinary cotton which have been planted in this country for a great many years, without any improvement in seed, and find the same result in all.

WM. HARPER.

Brookville, Miss., August 2, 1870.

Southern Cultivator.

Dr. Augustus Voelker of England, during the past year, has reached valuable conclusions as to the application of manure to potatoes. He sums them up thus in The Journal of the Royal Agricultural Society:

1. The greatest increase came from the application to an acre of 400 pounds of mineral super-phosphates, 200 of potash salts, and 200 of sulphate of ammonia.
2. Dung did about as well.
3. The absence of sulphate of ammonia was attended with a marked falling off, and nitrate of soda cannot replace it.
4. The compound above named beats Peruvian guano.
5. Common salt does no good but harm to potatoes.
6. The above mixture gave a crop of twelve tons to the acre on light land, and the same unmanured yielded but half.—Exchange.

The recent Democratic victories in the North and West were largely owing to the patient and conservative course pursued by the South. The Southern people says the Galveston News, saw clearly the supreme difficulties which the Democracy at the North had to meet, and were also convinced that until the spell of Radicalism was broken at the North, any formal Democratic movements at the South would be premature. The Democracy of the North were thoroughly posted as to the situation, and all they asked of Southern Democrats was to "manage along" as best they might, and especially to avoid the raising of any issues which would arrest the progressing disintegration of the Radical party. Some of the Southern Democrats were restive under the constraints of the conservative position thus marked out for the party in the South, and were anxious for ultra Democratic Conventions and strict Democratic organization in the Southern States, at a time when such a policy could have had no other effect than to postpone the dissolution of the Radical power. But the common sense of most held these fretful spirits in awe, and the result—the glorious result—is seen in the recent large reduction of the Radical majority in Congress, and in the inauguration of a movement which promises to restore that Democratic control of affairs under which, during many of the best years of our history, the foundations of the greatness of the country were laid.

The contemplation of General Grant with a message on his mind can only call up the figure of little Johnny Tetterby staggering about with that blessed Moloch of a baby, like a very small porter with a very large parcel, which was directed to nobody and could never be delivered anywhere. But for the Cox muddle one could hardly suspect the President of having read the document to which his name is by a fiction current in empires and monarchies, officially subscribed.—Courier-Journal.

During our late civil war a great activity was manifested in the culture of cotton in Egypt and India. It was fondly hoped in England that in the interval of strife the South would lose its prestige as the producer of cotton, and England foresaw a great future of wealth arising from the growth of this precious staple in her Eastern possessions. But the proposition made by man in this matter has been nullified by the disposition made by nature. The scepter of the cotton rule has been resumed by the South, and India and Egypt are retiring from the field of competition. This is the meaning of the despatches which have been received from Bombay by the cotton-growing associations of London and Manchester, mentioning a serious decrease in the number of acres under cultivation in India this year.

The following sentence, "Sator arepo tenet opera rotas," is not first-class Latin, but may be freely translated: "I cease from my work; the mower will wear his wheels." It is, in fact, something like a nonsense verse, but has three peculiarities: 1. It spells backward and forward the same. 2. The first letter of each word spells the first word. 3. All the second letters of each word spell the second word. 4. All the third letters spell the third word, and so on through the fourth and fifth. 5. The reverse process, commencing with the last letter of each word, spells the first word. 6. Then the next to the last letters spell the next to the last word, and so on through. The fact that somebody must have wasted in the construction of this curiosity infinitely more time and labor than it is worth, does not make it any the less remarkable.

An Ohio hog grower says that the following treatment will make the biggest hog out of a pig in twelve months: Take three parts of barley, two of corn, and one of peas. Grind them together; then cook and feed cold. He says it is the cheapest food, and that any pig of good improved breed can be made to gain a pound a day until a year old.—Prairie Farmer.

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve fund in premiums notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holdeys in this State, which fact must establish the better stability of the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES.

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks upon which elements of administration the security of a Life insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its Cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000,000 00, and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash Income per annum is over $6,500,000 00, and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy-holders, as is the case in many Companies.
5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000 00.
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $6,500,000 00, and upwards, in cash divided among Policy-Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as case in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made More progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected, and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other Company in the World.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiture" and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1869, was $51,021,041.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $43,000,000 greater than any other Company.
